

The 9 elements of Digital Citizenship

Digital Communication

Being polite

Be considerate of other people and be careful what you say

Using non-vulgar vocabulary don't say things people might take the wrong way.

Digital Etiquette

Ask before you put any information about anyone on the internet.

When talking to others do not swear ask before putting pictures of others on the internet

Being nice to other online social net workers and not hurting their feelings by talking about them, you never know what goes around

Digital law

Don't copy others work, otherwise known as plagiarism. Don't do it, IT'S ILLEGAL :O

Health and Wellness

feeling comfortable in a Physical and Physiological way when you're in the online world.

trying to make others feel safe when they are in the online world with you, and others around you.

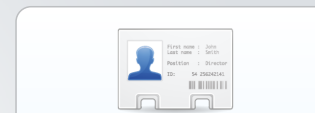

Digital Literacy

use good words

Digital Commerce

don't sell others bad things on the internet digital rights and responsibilities

Being courteous

keeping passwords privet

keeping personal info private keeping personal info of others privet

Digital access

Always keep passwords safe and don't tell others your passwords.

don't share others passwords